Notification of Results

A Level & BTEC:
Results will be available for collection from school between 09:00 - 12:00 on Thursday 13th August 2025.

Staff will be available in school from 09:00 to deal with any specific exam / careers related guidance you may require.

Students should go to main reception where they will be directed to the hall to be collected.

Parents/carers are more than welcome to turn up with students.

If you are unable to collect results in person at this time, the following alternatives can happen:

- We are unable to give results out over the phone for any reason.
- Another student or trusted person can collect the results, however the student not attending must have notified the school they won't be coming in and the person collecting the results must bring in some form of ID to prove they are the trusted person.
- We can email results to a parental contact who is on SIMS, the school must have been notified of this.
- Any student that we have not heard from, results will be posted out the following day.
- Email enquiries should go to Ruskinexamsofficer@prioryacademies.co.uk

Results slips

On results day you will receive a Results Slip generated by school that will show your provisional results. The results are provisional until you receive your results certificate. The results slip lists ALL the exams you have and any components within the qualification.

The number/letter in the 'Grd' column indicates the overall grade, and the 'mark equiv' tells you your total mark in the qualification.

What if I am not happy with my final grade?

If you are not happy with your results, or they are not what you expected, then papers can be remarked.

There are certain subjects where it is not possible for them to be remarked.

Before any paper goes in for a review of marking (ROM), a subject teacher will review your paper. If they believe that your paper has not been marked correctly and if it were marked correctly a change of grade could happen, they will put your paper in for a ROM

When your paper goes in for a ROM, you need to understand that your mark can go up or down.

If you want your paper to be reviewed and potentially lead to a ROM, we need your permission. By giving us your permission, you are acknowledging that you understand that your grade can go up or down. You can either sign a consent form on results day or email Ruskinexamsofficer@prioryacademies.co.uk , HOD or subject teacher saying you give permission for your paper to be reviewed. When emailing you must make it clear what subject you are giving permission for, including the subject and paper.

The deadline for a review of marking is 24th September. To allow time for us to review the paper first we would need to know that you are interested in a remark before 10th September.

Once the paper is reviewed, we will let you know whether the paper is going in for a ROM or not. If your paper goes in for a ROM, we will then let you know the final outcome of the remark. To ensure we can do this, please ensure we have the best email address and contact number.

If the school decide after reviewing a paper that they will not be putting it in for a remark, you can choose to pay for the remark yourself. Please contact Ruskinexamsofficer@prioryacademies.co.uk if you require further information about this.

If your grades have affected whether you have been accepted into University, speak to a member of staff in the first instance who can advise on suitable next steps. A priority review of marking can take place if appropriate, the deadline for this is 20th August.

Certificates

Certificates usually arrive early November. If you are in 6th form at Ruskin they will distribute results in school on a designated day, all non-collected results will be available from December in reception. If you have left the academy then the certificates will be available in reception from a certain date.
If you are unable to collect them yourself then you may send a someone on your behalf, as long as they provide a letter signed by yourself saying you give them permission to do so. Alternatively, you can let the exams team know over email and the nominated person will be able to collect them if they can provide ID.

JCQ regulations state that schools should keep certificates for 12 months. If they remain un-collected they may be disposed of securely.

Awarding bodies do not issue replacement certificates for GCSE or GCE qualifications, instead they will issue a certified statement of results which can be used in place of an exam certificate. It is therefore recommended that you collect your certificates and take good care of them; many employers will require to see these in order to offer employment.
